

THE SHOW

The Bacchae by Euripides
Directed by Tim Ford

A searing and vibrant play that has endured through millennia, The Bacchae tells the story of the God Dionysius returning home to clear his mother's name. Accompanied by his band of cultish followers, he enraptures the town with sometimes devastating consequences. By putting music, movement and poetry at its heart, this production highlights the elemental nature of this story that has captured imaginations both ancient and modern.

THE COMPANY

There will be 52 full-time places available to Hampshire-based young people aged 14-21 years. Membership in the company will be by workshop audition.

We are looking for versatile, energetic, enthusiastic, committed, individuals who can demonstrate potential as much as talent. We need:

Actors - willing to play a variety of ensemble roles.

Musicians - people who play Piano, Saxophone, Trumpet, Guitar, Accordion, Violin, Flute or Clarinet as well as those up for composing and song-writing.

Technicians - interested in design, construction, lighting, sound and stage management.

THE DATES

Residential rehearsal period:

Thurs 26 Aug - Sat 5 Sept at University of Winchester

Non-residential production week at The Nuffield:

Mon 6 Sept - Wed 8 Sept
